

COURSE MATERIAL: UNIT 4 Supporting Sentences
Section 9

Act-3 p. 76

TS1 b, c, e, f, h

TS2 a, d, g

Act-7 p. 79-81

Paragraph 24:

This paragraph will not include any information about the beverages at this restaurant.

Paragraph 25:

Panama is the southern end of North America, but it used to be part of Colombia, which is in South America.

Paragraph 26:

In fact, Rome and Paris are visited each year by millions of students from all over.

Act-8 p.83-84

Paragraph 28:

1. Good SS – It gives more detail to the introductory sentence.
2. Good SS – It gives example of other sea creatures, which is mentioned in previous sentence.
3. Unrelated – The paragraph is about snorkelling in general, not the writer's personal experience.

Paragraph 29:

1. Good SS – It is the first example of how to relax.
2. Good SS – It is another example of how to relax.
3. Unrelated – The use of soft music to study better is not related to the topic of how to relax and fall asleep.

Act-9 p. 85

2. It            3. they            4. it            5. We            6. It

Act-10 p. 87

1. restates the main idea            2. offers a suggestion

Act-11 p. 88-90 suggested answers

Paragraph 30:

Although I was surprised at first by the amount of work I had to do, I managed to change my habits and become a good college student.

Paragraph 31:

Whether a hurricane, a cyclone, or typhoon, the effects can be very similar.

Paragraph 32:

After preparing eggs in each of the four ways, you can decide which method is easiest and most delicious for you.