

Children aren't colouring books. You don't get to fill them with your favourite colours.
--Khaled Hosseini

CAMP FOR KIDS

- Since 2004, the camp has been running for children, with educational games to play.

“Adults often have dreams, dreams of the good old days, when there were many heroes, and the day never grew long.”

--Maia, 2004

PETCHABOON
THAILAND
— CAMP FOR KIDS

- Children gather around each table and enjoy coloring activities; some are drawing the picture of their village.

- Approx. 500-600 children (under 15 years old) would start queuing early in the morning to collect their coupons for activities.

